Public Comments

Jittaun Batiste thanked the DASB Senate on behalf of the Ramadan Committee for their support. Scott McDonough expressed his concerns about a DASB [sic] sponsored club event (secretary's note: ICC not DASB sponsors clubs) and asked the following questions: Is there a sound level/decibel limit for events? Does the senate have a decibel meter? If there is a senate PA system is there a mark on the volume knob for the limit? If someone raises his or her voice on the microphone does it go over the limit? What document covers the limit? Are clubs open to all students? Can they discriminate? Can they meet in secret? He expressed his concerns and asked these questions due to the fact that the Chi Alpha Christian Fellowship had an event in the Campus Center Patio that he stated was too loud, was preachy, and did not give others a chance to not listen to the club's proselytizing.
