De Anza College Fall 2024

Instructor: Gustavo Martinez

Email: martinezgustavo@fhda.edu Office # A-33

Office Hours: MW 3:15-4:15, TTR 12:15-1:15 (open Lab)

Course Description: This course provides students with beginning techniques of throwing on the potter's wheel, along with forming, shaping, trimming, and decorating basic wheel-thrown pieces. Students will use the stoneware firing techniques and processes taught in Ceramics (ARTS 018A). Students are expected to challenge themselves within the parameters of each assignment, as well as to adopt a collaborative, engaged, and helpful attitude in the classroom. Basic studio maintenance and cooperative kiln loading/unloading is considered part of the class. At the end of the quarter, there will be one mandatory, in-person studio cleanup, final critique and potluck.

Student Learning Outcome (SLO)

Demonstrate competency in basic wheel throwing techniques including centering, opening, pulling, shaping and trimming.

Students will also demonstrate proper construction techniques when joining parts to their wheel thrown projects.

Demonstrate competency in designing and finishing their work with high fire glazes.

Course Objectives:

Demonstrate a working knowledge of the potter's wheel.

Develop skills in throwing on the potter's wheel.

Evaluate the process of wheel thrown ceramic work.

Evaluate the nature and importance of wheel thrown ceramic objects.

Complete a series of wheel thrown finished clay pieces.

This Course will be offered in person with face-to-face instruction:

This means all lectures, demonstrations and critiques will take place in person in the classroom. The studio on campus will be open for your use during our class time, and I will be in class to assist you.

There will be NO synchronous online instruction, zoom or use of Canvas. Email will be used to communicate course announcements and materials.

Classroom Etiquette

Respect yourself, other class members, visitors, and the space we share.

Please arrive on time and stay for the scheduled class period. If you must arrive late or leave early, please do so with as little disruption of the class as possible.

Come to class prepared, with any needed supplies and books, and with homework completed. I will do my best to notify you in advance of supplies you will need.

During class work time, please keep personal conversation to a minimum, and use a quiet voice. You may listen to music devices with earphones, but be prepared to remove them to communicate with the instructor or to resume class discussions.

Clean up after yourself. This includes the worktables, floor, and shared counters and sink. Each class may also have an assigned weekly cleanup task for the classroom.

Please turn cell phones off during class. If you must stay in contact with work or family, turn off the cell phone ringer. Use your phone outside the classroom during break or after class.

When anyone is addressing the class as a whole, please listen attentively. All in the room appreciate others not having personal conversations during lectures and discussions.

During critiques, please keep all comments respectful. Honest and constructive criticism, without voicing negative judgments, can be very useful to the artist.

It is not appropriate to bring children or pets to class.

Please consider that there are people with sensitivities to strong odors, such as fragrant colognes or oils. All would appreciate minimizing your use of strongly odorous substances.

No flip-flops, sandals, or open shoes, only close-toed shoes. There is loose glass in the studio.

No food or sugar drinks in the classroom.
