

EWRT1A-LART250 Section 05Q

Hybrid

Winter 2025

In-Person: M/W 9:30-11:20 in L73A

AND

Online: on Canvas

Instructor: Yeganeh Modirzadeh

Contact Information:

I hold in-person office hours on Wednesdays 11:20 a.m. to 12:20 p.m. in L47, Language and Communication Village. We also can arrange zoom meetings outside of office hours if needed. In addition, you can message me on Canvas or send me an email for any questions/concerns at modirzadehyeganeh@fhda.edu.

I check email frequently, but not always on weekends. Review the weekly modules ahead of time to allow time for questions about the assignments before their due dates.

Class Rules

Please:

- Come to class consistently on M/W and be on time. Attendance is NOT optional!
- Come to class prepared; most writing assignments are due on Sundays and reading assignments on Mondays.
- Turn off all cell phones and laptops in class! We will use computers in ATC 307 when needed.
- Be curious and have fun learning!

Course Description

EWRT 1A-LART 250 is a dual-course that combines 3 units of LART250 (Academic Reading and Writing) and 5 units of EWRT1A (Composition and Reading). This combination is designed to improve your skills of college-level reading, analysis, and composition. The assignments for the two parts of this course are integrated, and the objectives of the courses are complementary. You will find all EWRT1A and most LART250 assignments on Canvas. Most LART250 exercises and activities will be discussed during our in-person meetings.

Bear in mind that this is a hybrid, 8-unit course. For every unit hour, you are expected to study twice as long outside of class. Therefore, expect to spend at least 15-20 hours on completing the assignments for this course to achieve a successful outcome.

Below find some information on CSA and WRC, 2 De Anza resources to help you succeed in this course:

This class has partnered with the Writing and Reading Center(WRC) to offer Customized Support Activities (CSA) to help you this quarter.

Pick activities you think will help you most. Complete at least three Customized Support Activities by the due dates below. I hope you can try tutoring at least once, but feel free to mix and match.

Options include:

- *In-person tutoring sessions Monday-Thursday 9:30-6:30 in ATC 309
- Zoom tutoring sessions--Click to Join during WRC open hours
- Zoom Skills Workshops--Click to Join after checking workshop schedule
- Counseling appointments (info about Counseling)
- Writing, reading or grammar resources (DLA's) that you complete on your own time

Winter CSA due dates:

- Complete Activity 1 by Friday, February 7 (end of week 5)
- Complete Activity 2 by Friday, February 21 (end of week 7)
- Complete Activity 3 by Friday, March 7 (end of week 9)
- Complete Optional Activity 4 by Friday, March 21 (end of week 11)

Watch your email and accept your invitation to join the CSA Canvas site. This is not a separate class—it's just a tool to keep track of your completed activities and a resource for links and explanations of all the activities.

Get verification for CSA credit for tutoring, workshops, counseling sessions or do-on-your-own activities. You don't submit assignments yourself—When you see the friendly SSC staff or tutors, they will mark the activity as completed.

At the end of the quarter I will check your activities in the CSA Canvas site myself, or ask you to send me a pdf/screenshot/photo of your grade sheet. You may also include the CSA grade sheet in your final portfolio to show the extra effort you made.

If you have questions or are not sure where to start, please ask me, or contact Victoria or Diana at the WRC at kahlervictoria@fhda.edu or alvesdelimadiana@fhda.edu .

Student Learning Objectives

- Practice writing as a multi-step process including planning and revising with attention to varying purposes, audiences, and rhetorical strategies.
- Read and analyze rhetorically and culturally diverse narrative and expository texts from a variety of perspectives.

Course Objectives

- A. Analyze college level texts and discourse that are culturally and rhetorically diverse.
- B. Compose essays drawn from personal experience and assigned texts.
- C. Utilize MLA guidelines to format essays, cite sources, and compile a works cited page.
- D. Create syntactically varied sentences that are free of mechanical errors.
- E. Distinguish, compare, and evaluate the multiplicity and ambiguity of perspectives.

Course Material

- Digital access to The New York Times. You can access the NYT via a complimentary subscription.
- There There by Tommy Orange. ISBN: 0525436140
- All other material is available in Canvas.

Assignments

Important: Follow Canvas MODULES (and not the "Assignments" link) for all your reading and writing assignments. Canvas Calendar alone does not list all the assigned work.

- EWRT 1A 4 Essays (200 points)
- LART Assignments and Quizzes (50 points)
- CSA Activities (25 points)

- Forum Posts and Participation (50 points)
- Extra credit (5 points)
- Final Portfolio (20 points)

Total: 350 points

Extra Credit: There will be 1 extra credit assignment worth 5 points. To be eligible to submit the extra credit assignment, you must have submitted ALL the assignments of the course.

Important Policies

Attendance: If you miss more than 2 class periods and/or are inactive on Canvas for more than 7 days, your status in class may be jeopardized, and you may be at risk of being dropped. Be sure to communicate with me if you expect to miss class.

Participation: Read ALL assigned weekly readings and/or viewings BEFORE we meet in class, and be ready to discuss them. There may be in-class quizzes based on readings of the week, so come to class prepared! Your participation in class discussions, as well as online forums and other online discussions and activities are part of the requirements for successful completion of this course.

Late Homework: To avoid stress, please turn in all assignments on time. Late assignments are accepted up to 48 hours after the due date but lose 10% of the assignment's worth. Some assignments do not have a late submission option, so be vigilant of due dates!

Due Dates: Most due dates, but not all, fall on Sunday.

Revision: The in-class essay may not be revised. Take-home essays will be submitted through a multi-draft process. I strongly recommend that you take advantage of both NetTutor and WRC services before submitting take home essays.

Documentation Style: MLA

Plagiarism: Please read "Academic Integrity" in Student Handbook to learn more about the consequences of plagiarism. Be sure to use outside sources including AI material properly and wisely by citing all to avoid the risk of committing plagiarism. I reserve the right to schedule a face-to-face meeting if plagiarism is suspected. AI content is considered plagiarized material. Turnitin.com detects AI content and marks it as plagiarism. All essays will be submitted to Turnitin.com.

Important

1. Last minute system failures, Internet disconnection, lack of access to a printer, or Canvas malfunction will not be accepted as legitimate excuses for submitting an assignment late. Plan on submitting early to avoid stress and penalty.
2. It is important that we maintain effective communication. Please send me an email if you know you are going to miss class, if you have missed class, if you have fallen behind your work, if you are unclear about something, or any other issue with which you need guidance in or outside of this class. Looking forward to working together to make this experience a success.

Forum Posts: Participation in all weekly forums is a requirement for this course. All Forum posts must be submitted no later than 23:55 on the Sunday of their corresponding week. Remember that for each forum topic you need to post your response to the prompt at least once (150 words) and reply to at least two other posts (150 words each.)

Peer-Review Process: Several of assignments of the course require peer-review in which case you will be assigned peer work to review and give feedback to. The peer-review must be thorough and detailed to receive full credit, i.e., the rubric needs to be filled out with detailed comments as well as other needed suggestions. You will receive more detailed instruction for each assignment.

Documentation Style: MLA

Grading Criteria: A score of 70% (a C) and above counts as passing, but anything less does not. No unearned points will be given to round up your grade. Please do not ask for extra credit points in the last minute.

Your Essay score	Letter Grade
97-100	A+
94-96	A
90-93	A-
87-89	B+
84-86	B
80-83	B-
76-79	C+
70-75	C
67-69	D+
64-66	D
60-63	D-
59 and below	F

C- is not a viable grade at De Anza College.

Note: A grade of D+ and below is considered no pass for composition classes. However, if you receive an “F” instead, you may have the option to retake the course and replace the “F” once the second time you pass the course successfully. Please consult your counselor to confirm this policy. If you have received a D in class, but prefer an F to take advantage of this policy, you must let me know.
