

Category Response

working Coordinating events working Explaining the significance between Social Sciences and Humanities and STEM working book, coordinate, facilitate, planetarium field trips working Processing fin aid apps working promote the college by tablig at career fairs working Be available & responsible to students concerns at odd hours working field any questions from incoming students/guests who walk in visitor center working student crisis management working collaboration from other departments working Being a small group of staff, we work well together working Constantly exploring different ways to say or explain things to students working Counseling support working flea market open to public working create samples of assignments working connecting studnets w/ counselors working Creating transformative courses working Creating various assessment tools to get specific information from students working Creative, out of box thinking. working Responding and corresponding via email and discussion boards working Academic Senate working Ensuring ADA accessibility working We have ben able to successfully advocate and get funds to increasing student needs for quarter-long checkouts.

 working Enlighten and inspire minds working prerequisite clearances working assisting admin staff in summer school office working Evaluating teaching methodology working Explain how each assignment has value or utility in the business or everyday world working Exploring numerous and different media sources working We are badass at field trips! working counseling students on fin aid working email responses with students and staff working flexibility for students and staff working Being available to students to help them navigate college working Student support working Forming communities among faculty and students working Operations staff are excellent liasons between the campus and district working Get to know students in first two weeks working Helping students feel confident in their skills and daily lives working Advising working Serve as Guided Pathways liaison working Providing counseling and guidance to students working High success rate working We are providing open lab to support students. working individualized feedback to students working system antagonist working Other duties as assigned working Department collaboration or low/zero cost materials. Work in Progress but love the initiative working Maintain office hours working work one-on-one with students working Teaching working Due to additional funding/promises, we are able to serve students without charging fines. working onboarding new FT colleagues working Creative/engaging course activities. working We got funding for MESA grant. working Outreach events working Passion working nurture / support students and colleagues working Equity Core Team working Quarter system is great! working make quizzes and exams working Provide supplemental visual and written examples of course materials working meet w/ dean weekly "communication" working Board submissions working Recommendation letters

Recurring Themes

Academic Advising
 Academic Senate
 Adobesign
 Amazing students
 Answer questions to help students find answers and resources Canvas
 Career fairs
 Clubs and student activities collaboration from other departments Connecting students to campus resources Constantly exploring different ways to say or explain things to students Counseling support create a dynamic and compassionate, multi lingual and cultural community create samples of assignments Creating safe spaces for students Creating transformative courses Creating various assessment tools to get specific information from students Creative, out of box thinking.
 Creative/engaging course activities.
 Discussion forums
 Embedded counselors

Embedded tutoring
 Enlighten and inspire minds Ensuring ADA accessibility
 EOPS
 Evaluating teaching methodology Explain how each assignment has value or utility in the everyday world Exploring numerous and different media sources Filed trips
 Financial aid
 Flea Market
 flexibility for students and staff Following up on students in class who seem to be struggling Food pantry
 Forming communities among faculty and students Get a lot done for small staff Get to know students in first two weeks Give students feedback for improvement and guide them in using tools that help them become independent learners Grading
 Guided Pathways
 Helping students feel confident in their skills and daily lives High success rates Increasingly higher standards for overall course design, accessibility, course navigation individualized feedback to students Listen to students
 Listening
 Low/zero cost textbooks Maintain office hours
 Make students smile
 Mental health resouces
 MESA grant
 Noncredit classes nurture / support students and colleagues Open labs
 Outreach events
 Passion
 prerequisite clearances Problem solving
 Provide emotional support to students Provide feedback to students Provide supplemental visual and written examples of course materials Providing textbooks, calculators, iPads, laptops to students in need Quick News
 Recommendation letters